Agenda:

- Project discussion

Summary:

so my Good morning regarding last week tasks the data collection phase has been completed. We gather data from all required sources and perform initial validation. Yes, there were some inconsistencies and missing values in the raw data. We resolve most of them by data cleaning and standardization, but few records still confirmations from the source team. I will do that. From my side I started working data on data analysis. I have completed exploratory data. I have prepared a draft report and reveal I will share it with the team today. I will share it with the team today for the feedback. Yes,...
